The Catholic Home Mission Appeal

Strengthening the Church at Home

What is a Home Mission Diocese? Home mission dioceses are those diocese in the United States and its territories and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services included Mass and the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacon's religious sisters, and lay people. Right now, over 40 percent of the dioceses are considered home missions. Collection Date: April 29,2018
