RCIA

Well August is already here so we need to think about RCIA! (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) RCIA begins this year on Wednesday, September 5th at 6:00 PM in Father O'Dea Hall.

Do you or anyone you know aspire to become Catholic? If so, this class is for you (or them)! Are you or anyone you know baptized but haven't received First Communion and/or Confirmation? This class is also for you (or them)! This class is also for those people who have been baptized in another Faith Tradition but wish to become a Catholic.

We are also looking for people who are wanting to help out with RCIA. This is a great ministry! We participate in the conversion process of people. Our group becomes a very close-knit group to which we are proud to belong. We cover all the beliefs of the Catholic faith, all the sacraments and the Ten Commandments. This year we are adding a brief Bible study. If you have any questions, please call Trish Eley at 670-2224.

Bulletin are due on Wednesday, Thank you Mayra
